DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the claimed subject matter in claim 7, lines 2-3, "a side of a baton" must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Objections

2. Claims 6 and 8 are objected to because of the following informalities: as to claim 6, the claimed limitation "a spray canister" as recited in line 6, and "a spray canister" as recited in claim 1, line 4, are vague and unclear because it is not clear if the claimed limitation in claim 6, line 6, "a spray canister" is the same as the claimed limitation noted in claim 1 above. Applicant should restructure the claimed language to prevent double inclusion throughout the claims. As to claim 8, lines 5-6, it appears that the claimed limitation "the straight baton" lacks antecedent basis. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 1-2,5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Huling 3,184,116.

Huling discloses a spray actuator collar (11) for spray canisters, which comprises a base portion (15) with an inner diameter form fitted for compressively receiving a top of a spray canister (a), an L-shaped channel as seen in Figure 1, a safety flap (57), a push button (48), a built-in hinge point (49), a squared off forward section (21), wherein the spray actuator collar is a one piece injection molded item (col. 2, ll. 40-45), the safety flap of the spray actuator collar remains in a down position until a user flips up the safety flap to access the push button on the spray actuator collar, and absence of force on the safety flap results in automatic closure of the safety flap (col. 4, ll. 59-75 onto col. 5, ll. 1-5).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claims 3-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Huling 3,184,116.

Huling has taught all the features of the claimed invention except that the spray collar is made of polycarbonate material, as well as the claimed subject matter in claim

It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have Huling's spray collar to be made of polycarbonate and/or polypropylene material, since it has been held to be within the general skill of a worker in the art to select a known material on the basis of its suitability for the intended use as a matter of obvious design choice. In re Leshin, 125 USPQ 416.

Allowable Subject Matter

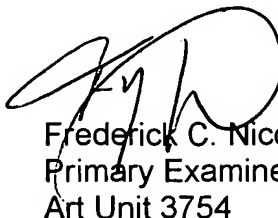

7. Claims 6-9 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

8. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Parr et al. 4,416,399, Goncalves 4,482,082, Glazier 3,236,421, Anderson 3,933,278, Pehr 4,353,483, Micallef 3,642,179, Bush 4,442,955, Mitchell 4,901,889, Gaichuk 5,992,708, Tanaka 5,971,230, Reich et al. 5,249,713 and Hamlin 4,838,456 disclose other types of spray actuator.
